Raul E. Rosas is the Founder and Executive Director of LIFT A VET. He is a native of Bayamon, Puerto Rico and a U.S. Navy retiree of 20 years who served in Operation Ernest Will, the Cold War era, Iraq War, and is a Service-Disabled Veteran. Raul has over 10 years working in the private sector and is currently a Cyber Security Consultant supporting U.S. Department of Defense agencies.

Mr. Rosas' mission is to advocate for the needs and benefits of veterans living in the United States, Puerto Rico, and abroad. He has established a consortium of professionals to revitalize the former Roosevelt Roads Naval Station in Puerto Rico with the goal of creating new and much-needed jobs for Veterans and local communities in Puerto Rico.

LIFT A VET is a Maryland and Puerto Rico 501c3 Public Charity Organization created to uplift Veterans in the U.S and Puerto Rico with the challenges they are facing in life linked to their military service.
